Bean's Station Hotel

Springs.

ZIHESUBSCRIBERS, OWNERS and proprietors of the Mineral Hill Springs, and the Brick Hotel, at Bean's Station, Tennesses, having thoroughly repovated and returnahed the same, will open the same for the reception of visitors on the 15th of May, 1881.

Bean's Station is nine miles from Morristown, Tennessee, the nearest station on the E. T., V. & G. R. R., near the base of Clinch Mountain, about 1,300 feet above the level of the sea, delightfully located in the Bean's Station Valley, of which Mr. Killbrew says: "The Bean's Station Valley is one of the most beautiful spois in the world, so pronounced by the visitor and traveller, without exception. From the lofty Clinch, with the distant elevation of four States on the horizou, the myriad intervening hills any aring like broken waves of a elevation of four States on the horizon, the myriad intervening hills appearing like broken waves of a contract of the myriad intervening hills appearing the broken waves of a contract of the myriad of the myriad

The hotel is a large and most substantial bri-k building, with large airy rooms, fire-places in each, perfect ventilation, surrounded by shade trees and grass, affording a delightful play ground for children, immediately on the leading highway, three rules from Holston River, two miles from the base of Clinch Mountain, one mile from Tate Springs, one mile from Clinchdale Springs and the Minoral Hill Springs, including the celebrated Black Water, constituting part of the property, is now owned and controled by the subscribers. The Mineral Waters in the immediate vicinity, embracing every variety of Sulphur Water, Chalybeate, Alum, Epsom, and the celebrated Black Water, which is a most remarkable appring, constituting as a whole the most wonderful kombination of Mineral Waters to be found in any neighborhood in the South, adapted to the relief of many of the diseases incident to humanity, and visited annually by humbreds of persons from all the blood or skin.

The hotel will be under the immediate supervision of Mrs. N. A. McFarland, assisted by coupetent assistants and servants, and every attention will be given to the comfort and pleasure of guests. The fare will be as good as the country of the control of the affords, and having made some reputation in this respect the past season, care will be taken to maintain the reputation of the house. The Mineral Waters will be supplied to guests free of charge. Those not desiring Mineral Water will find both free-stone and lime-stone water of suerior quality on the premises. Persons destring to visit these Springs reach them from Morristown, on the E. T., V. & G. R. R., forty-three miles east of Enoxville, from which place a splendid line of backs runs daily to the house, at Bean's Station Fare for the trip $1.50.
